

S. RICHTER STRING ORCHESTRA FROM MOSCOW, RUSSIA

The “S.Richter” young people string orchestra was founded in October 1996 within the Richter school of Arts, located in Moscow. In this school, students are trained to attain excellence. Up until now, the Orchestra has played in more than 450 concert halls in Russia as well as in Europe. The ensemble has won numerous awards. Since 2014, it is under the conducting of Petr Gladysh. With eight participations to the Eurochestries festivals, the orchestra is back in Charente-Maritime in 2018.

PETR GLADYSH, conductor of orchestra

Petr Gladysh is a cellist, as well as a member and soloist of the Orchestra of the S.Richter school of Arts since its foundation. Graduate from the Tschaikovsky State Conservatory of Moscow, he is currently the first cello of the National philharmonic orchestra of Russia. Laureate of numerous international competitions of cello, he is pursuing his studies in orchestra conducting at the State Conservatory of Moscow.

MUSICAL PROGRAMME

J.S.Bach: Aria
J.S.Bach: Violin concerto in A minor
Tchaïkovski: Children's Album
Gendel: Sonata for two cellos
Gluck: Melody from the Opera Orpheus
Pietro Mascagni: Intermezzo
Brahms: Hungarian Dance
J.C. Bach: Cello concerto in C minor
Haydn: Cello concerto in C major
Tchaïkovski: Nocturne
Saint-Saëns: The Swan
Gershwin: Lullaby of Clara extract from Porgy and Bess
Neapolitan song: O Sole Mio
Saint-George: Symphony n°2 in D minor
Piazzolla: Oblivion
Piazzolla: Libertango
Thomas Newman: Tango from the movie Scent of a Woman
Vivaldi: Concerto for two violins in A minor
Vivaldi: Summer, extract from the Four Seasons
Leclerc: Concerto for violin in C major
Khatchatourian: Dance with swords
Pryzbylowicz: Melody
Coldplay: Viva la vida
Coldplay: Take on me
Denca: On the swings
Igor Frolov: Joke-Souvenir
Ellerton: Tarantella
Popular russian song : The moon is rising
Skorodumov: Luctus
Tchaïkovski: Russian Dance